Jack Johnson

When you're so lonely lying in bed night's closed its eyes but you can't rest your head everyone's sleeping, all through the house you wish you could dream but forgot to somehow sing this lullaby to yourself sing this lullaby to yourself And if you are waiting waiting for me know I'll be home soon, darling, I guaruntee I'll be home Sunday, just in one week dry up your tears if you start to weep and sing this lullaby to yourself sing this lullaby to yourself lullaby, I'm not nearby, sing this lullaby to yourself don't you cry, no, don't you cry sing this lullaby to yourself 'cause when I arrived here, it won't be that long no, it won't seem like any time that I've been gone it ain't the first time, it won't be the last won't you remember this words to help the time pass? so when you're so lonely lying in bed night's closed its eyes but you can't rest your head everyone's sleeping, all through the house you wish you could dream but forgot to somehow sing this lullaby to yourself sing this lullaby to yourself sing this lullaby sing this lullaby sing this lullaby to yourself
