

I Just Wanna...

Elijah Blake

Girl you single tonight
With some shit ya ain't like
Bout that nigga that was luving ya just the otha night
You've been working all week
Know it's hard on yo feet Let me take some of that stress up off ya, come lay with me
Ya know what's up, pour anotha cup
Let that liquor hold yo sentence, why ya got to talk so much?
Not tryin' to fuss, but I'm in a rush
See ya moving at me lips but not on this so if ya ain't saying much
Tried to be polite, but you ain't actin' right
Sit yo pretty ass on this bed, make a v shape with yo legs
That's it, that's it!
I just want to get fucked up
With ya, with ya (oh yeah) with ya
I just want to get fucked up
With ya, with ya (oh yeah) I do
I just want to get fucked up
I already, already, already know
I just want to get fucked up I already, already, already know I just want to get fucked up
I admit it, I admit it when I said I came to kick it
Girl I was lyin' I got so damn carried away
There's nothin' left that I can say I want you now, I need you now
I gotta hit that shit somehow, somehow
I gotta hit that shit somehow, right now
(Bridge x2) i just want you in me deep so deep
