

Hurts Too Much

Starsailor

We all get burned sometimes
Lately I've had mine
Starts off in your mind
Runs right down your spine
We all get hurt by love
When you've had enough
Cracks all start to show
Sooner than you know
And it hurts too much
I'm letting you go
I'll walk these wet streets
Somewhere alone
We all get taken in
By dreams we'll never be in
Problems that we face
Soon will be replaced
And it hurts too much
I'm letting you go
I'll walk these wet streets
Somewhere alone
And it hurts too much
I'm letting you go
I'll walk these wet streets
Somewhere alone
You're looking for something
You already know
I'm down upon my knees
I see a ray of hope
I'm down upon my knees
I see a ray of hope
