

I Love Seattle

Tacocat

did you hear that the world is ending?
right here, right where we stand. at least no one's pretending that that would even be bad oh-oh, make it through the winter oh, summer too warm.
i wouldn't live anywhere else but don't say you weren't warned!
oh, beautiful Seattle
oh, fall into the sea
earthquake, tsunami, there's still no place i'd rather be earthquake, tsunami, there's still no place i'd rather be hey you, know the world is ending? reptiles take it in stride it's still worth defending outside, yelling at the tide oh-oh top left-hand corner the declaration reads high science, high changes, no substitute!
oh, beautiful Seattle
earthquake, tsunami, there's still no place i'd rather be
earthquake, tsunami, there's still no place i'd rather be
did you hear that the world is ending?
yeah, we already know where do you wanna be when the faultline goes?
oh, summer too warm.
i wouldn't live anywhere else but don't say you weren't warned!
oh, beautiful Seattle
earthquake, tsunami, there's still no place i'd rather be shape-shifters, programming, there's still no place i'd rather be
