Girl, give me that
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me that pussy Girl, give me that
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me that pussy Girl, give me that
Girl, give me that there
Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me that
You know you want it
Girl, don't act like you don't want it
Girl, I want it just as bad as you do
And look, see I can tell from this lil vibe
You got me feeling that you dig me
Boo, I'm digging you too
You wanna be one of the chosen few
Then gon jig up in this motherfucker Maybe me and you can do it big up in this motherfucker
Sit you in a crib where you can chill
Don't have to move a muscle
Give you some be good now you be good
Daddy gon hustle
Come here, let me whisper in your ear
I gotta tell you something
Listening to this song kinda make a nigga want something
Did some daydreaming
Now I'm fiending like I'm on something
Girl, don't hold it from me
'Cuz right now I'll be don strong on ya
I ain't the type to ruin your life
By running game and throwing your dreams
Get in your brain, suit your game
Ease your pain and show you things
Sit you on some leather seats while blowing green
And switching lanes
Girl, stop playing, let me beat it out the frame Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that

Girl, give me, girl, give me that there
She five foot seven a hundred and thirty nine pounds
Thirty six, twenty four, thirty eight, pretty fine brown
Bad lil' broad, I ain't seen her in a minute
Since the All-Star game and I'm still tryin' to hit it
Got a baby for this nigga that I used to sell things
He caught a fed case and he ain't leave her no change
She sold all his jewels, she sold all his cars
Now she dancing in the shaker club stripping for the stars
Sliding down the pole slow, drop it to a split
Pussy popping on a handstand, man, she the shit
She still looking tight though, still built right though
Run my game right and after the club
She might go back to the telly with me
Shake her jelly with me
Let my people bust on her face and her belly with me
I got Lil Webbie with me and he ain't hating
We some players in this bitch, so baby, stop your hesitating
Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there
Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there
Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there
Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there
Now I can tell from your size that that pussy is fire
So I'm here and I'm willing to give you whatever it require
For you to lay down on your back and then open your thighs
Long sharp deep and wide, have you rolling your eyes
You a big fine horse, I had no choice but to try it
Look like it's worth a couple G's but ain't some shit I buy
Let me whisper in your ear again, I ain't gon' lie
I might share a lil meal just don't tell nobody
Look you know you want it
Girl, don't act like you don't want it
Girl, you want it just as bad as I do
But check this out
You gon' be wishing that you been gave me your money
By the time I finish rumbling with you
While rhymes get loose, let's take this shit to the room
And you just keep yourself excited til' we get to the room
'Cuz I've been rocked up since I met you
I'm ready to give you the blues
Don't stunt, now take off your shoes
Don't act confused, you know what time it is
Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there
Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there
Girl, give me that pussy
Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there
Girl, give me that pussy

Girl, give me that
Girl, give me, girl, give me that there
