

Step Into My Life (feat. Sleep.Ing)

Powfu

Ayy, yes, I thought of things I wanna say but never said it
Searching how to get a girls' attention up on eddit
Sick of all these worries, burying my face side in Wishin' I could talk without awkward silence
Shit, I'm indecisive, never made my mind up
Say I'm not depressed 'cause isn't everybody kind of?
Hope that I'ma win you over eventually
Wonder if I'll steal the heart of someone better than me
And I don't care for what I've got
'Cause you're the only one I want
But I can't reach what's in my sight (my sight)
Take a step into my life
And I don't care for what I've got (I've got)
'Cause you're the only one I want (I want)
But I can't reach what's in my sight (my sight)
Take a step into my life
Into my life (my life)
Take a step into my life
Ayy, diving into the weekend, all I do is sleep in Friends hit me up hardly, all they do is party
How am I supposed to have fun?
If I know that I'll never be the one?
Diving into the night-time, all I do is write rhymes
Flippin' through these pages, nothing ever changes
Show me how to have a good time
'Cause I can never get this shit right, yeah
And I don't care for what I've got
'Cause you're the only one I want
But I can't reach what's in my sight (my sight)
Take a step into my life
And I don't care for what I've got (I've got)
'Cause you're the only one I want (I want)
But I can't reach what's in my sight (my sight)
Take a step into my life
Into my life, take a step into my life
I don't care for what I've got
Take a step into my life (yeah)
Take a step into my life
