

Sad Dress

Belly

I'm so tipsy I can't seem to walk
And you take me firmly by the hand in the dark
And those cheekbones of yours shine in the dark
I swear they do Think about dixie, she ducked when she ran
Made up three bad reasons to stand by her man
(He goes) Miss the vein once
Try, try again
I swear
(I just went)
My, my your dress says so sad
So sad
You don't care you just stole it somewhere
Feel it, fight it
Sleep inside it
Your dress says so sad
So sad
You don't care you just stole it somewhere I'd chew my foot off
I'd chew my foot off
To get out of this dress
