All Four Walls (feat. Vaults)

Gorgon City

As the minutes turned to hours
With the fading of the joy light and the heart beat for the pale It's turning into black and whiteIt's like everyday these four walls are closing in

One light hang

I know you want, I know you likeBut now the all four walls are falling down

All four walls, all four walls

But now the all four walls are falling down

All four walls, all four walls

As the days all fall together and i pale a fluorescent light

On the ghost I see the glory,

Give me?? into the burning lightAnd in every way these four walls are closing in One light hang

I know you want, I know you likeBut now the all four walls are falling down

All four walls, all four walls

But now the all four walls are falling down

All four walls, all four walls

All you have,

All you hold

Holding now

All you have,

All you hold

All you hold

All you love

All you have,

All you hold

All you hold

rin you note

All you love

All you have, All you hold

An you note

All you hold

All you loveBut now the all four walls are falling down

All four walls, all four walls

But now the all four walls are falling down

All four walls, all four walls
