

Let's Duet

John C. Reilly & Angela Correa

Cox: Hello Darlene.

Darlene: Hello, Mr. Cox.

Cox: Are you ready to sing one?

Darlene: I'm always ready.

Cox: Alright. In my dreams you're blowing me...Some kisses.

Darlene: That's one of my favorite things to do.

Cox: You and I could go down...In history.

Darlene: That's what I'm praying to do with you.

Together: Let's duet, in ways that make us feel good. Lets duet, and make that sacred sound, put two and two together, perfect harmony we found. We know it's only natural, lets duet!

Cox: I'm going to beat off...All my demons.

Darlene: That's what loving Jesus' all about.

Cox: Looking in your eyes, I start believing.

Darlene: Lets bring this whisper to shout.

Together: Lets Duet. In ways that make us feel good. Lets duet, and make that sacred sound.

Put two and two together, perfect harmony we found. We know its only natural. Lets duet.

Cox: Did i hear you sighing?

Darlene: What are you implying?

Cox: Look a little tired.

Darlene: Music's got me wired.

Cox: Pretty good looking

Darlene: Boy we're really cooking

Together: Now!

Cox: I just want to make out...What you're saying.

Darlene: Read my lips. Its what you're looking for.

Cox: Here I am a sneaking... behind ya.

Darlene: You can always come in my backdoor.

Together: Lets Duet. In ways that make us feel good. Lets duet, and make that sacred sound.

Put two and two together, perfect harmony we found. We know its only natural. Of course its only natural. God knows its only natural. Lets duet.
