

I Love Her, She Loves Me

NRBQ & The Whole Wheat Horns

I love her, she loves me
And i wont leave her if she wont leave me it may seem funny that she's always on my mind that in every dream she'll always be there well, i need her; and she needs me we'll cling to each other like no one can explain i'm so sure about it it's all so plain to see that she's just the only girl for me It may seem funny, that she's always on my mind that in every dream she'll always be there Well i love her, and she loves me
And i wont leave her
If she wont leave me
