

Tears To Snow

Hopsin

Man, Fuck!
Me and my girl keep arguin'
Somehow my life just got hard again
She's scared of groupies that steady bargin' in
I can't explain the pain my heart is in
Yeah I got money, but reality isn't sunny, it's dark and grim
See when I'm tourin' I don't take her
So she can feel what anger, thinkin' that another woman is gon' replace her
She standing in tears of emotion knee deep
I keep tryna tell her "Why? I ain't fuckin' no groupie!"
She don't believe me
My career is so deceiving
She's dating a rapper, nobody said it was gon' be easy
She threatening to leave me cause of these text messages girls sent
Now I'm just caught in this whirlwind
Tryna explain they just friends who can't control themselves
They see the fame, think I'm cute, and they get overwhelmed
She should fuckin' know the deal
I'm done dealing with this bull shit
Bitch, I'm outta here, you can go to hell!
There's no room to dive at the end of the road
When you're living in the cold not wearing a coat
The breeze turns tears to snow
Will they ever learn to love me?
Don't fucking call me!
Stop trying to reach me!
I ain't tryna hear all of your bull shit, just leave me! The underground ain't been the same since I emerged from it
Niggas hear my name and they just hatin' throw some dirt on it
Talking bout I blew up and just left them in the dust
But, we ain't friends mothafucka we ain't neva kicked it once
You better zip it shut, I'm respectful
But, if I spot you that's the only time that I won't ever give a fuck!
Your words can make a difference, do not forget
If you run your mouth and talk shit, you payin' for what comes out of it
Bitch niggas acting all macho jealous cuz they ain't got dough
While they still opening up for me at my show
Smiling coming over to me like I'm the coldest MC
And then you bad mouth the moment I leave!
Aight, I got it since I'm in the limelight
You niggas try to look cool by not being hyped about my height
Simple and plain, better watch where your missiles are aimed

Insult my name you'll rekindle a flame, nigga
There's no room to dive at the end of the road
When you're living in the cold not wearing a coat
The breeze turns tears to snow
Will they ever learn to love me?
Don't fucking call me!
Stop trying to reach me!
I ain't tryna hear all of your bull shit, just leave me! I'm about to lock myself in my basement and dig a grave inside
All jokes aside, man
I see no reason to stay alive
If I do it, I won't even say "good-bye!"
"Ya, ho, but you're Hopsin, and you have so many fa-ans!"
Yeah, great advice
I'm not lucky!
Outside of Hopsin is nobody who loves me!
I come home, to absolutely nothing!
Nobody pays any mind to Marcus!
They treat me like I'm retarded
And just want me to slave away as an artist!
It don't make any sense to me!
No one wants to get to know the real me!
They just want some pictures for they friends to see!
I do this kind of stress, endlessly!
Fuck this damn industry!
Look at all of the shit it just did to me!
I don't care about no big collabs or tryna swim in cash!
I just want a family I could watch the TV with and laugh!
Until then, I'm on the dark side!
I'm the fuckin' Dark Knight, startin' bar fights
It's a hard life
