

Pills

Hawthorne Heights

I keep thinking wow
I can't put this down
I can't shape this feeling that it's over and out
I don't miss these nights
When the favour gave me chills
Can't tell if I am dreaming
Or if it's just the pills
I've always been such an easy kill
I carry on without you here
I move along this unknown road
I turn your pictures to ashes before I go
As you burn away in the fire and embers
I chase the trail of smoke and senders
And lose myself in your dark black glow
I turn your pictures to ashes before I go
I can't escape this now
I can't burn this down
I can't stop believing that it's over and out
You've always been so hard to live without
I carry on without you here
I move along this unknown road
I turn your pictures to ashes before I go
As you burn away in the fire and embers
I chase the trail of smoke and senders
And lose myself in your dark black glow
I turn your pictures to ashes before I go
And I don't miss these nights
When the favour gave me chills
I can't tell if I am dreaming or if it's just the pills
I carry on without you here
I move along this unknown road
I turn your pictures to ashes before I go
As you burn away in the fire and embers
I chase the trail of smoke and senders
And lose myself in your dark black glow
I turn your pictures to ashes before I go
