

Defeated

Breaking Benjamin

Slip away, your vanity is gone, I'm falling out of place. we all fall down, the pain goes on.
We bear through, the war and turn the lost away, we all fall down, the pain goes on. And I'll be the fire, that dries, the flood. As I fight, for one last prayer, I keep holding on, no love, to believe in.

As I drag, the devil down, I will stand alone, no longer, defeated. Stripped away, we rise above it all, forgotten and betrayed, we all fall down, the pain goes on.

No better than before, still broken and afraid, we all fall down, the pain goes on. And I'll be the cloud, that hides, the sun. As I fight, for one last prayer, I keep holding on, no love, to believe in.

As I drag, the devil down, I will stand alone, no longer, defeated. I'm falling to pieces, pained and used.

I know what I needed, it's not you, it's not you.

As I fight, for one last prayer, I keep holding on, no love, to believe in.

As I drag, the devil down, I will stand alone, no longer, defeated.

No longer, defeated, no longer, defeated.
