The Hacienda

Alex Cameron

A baby cries at The Hacienda

A baby cries at The Hacienda

You know they only stop when they want to, no surrender Because they only stop when they want to at the HaciendaCountdown to diabetes at the Hacienda

Countdown to diabetes at the Hacienda

You know they don't even stop when they have to, no surrender Because they only stop when they want to at The Haciendal could write and tell you how I'm all blue

While I'm tangled up in sheets treating women to my pay per view But then I wonder what good that'll do

There's days I do my cheating with this beautiful L.A. Jew I needed some romancing so I went and had my ten dollar crew Now I'm looking at my baby and she's looking like a ten dollar view And I have tasted pussy, tasted half as sweet, is sweeter than you

It's youOoh ooh

No moleste, por favor at The Hacienda No moleste on the door at The Hacienda

And then he went till she was raw, baby, no surrender Because they only stop when they want to at The HaciendaMaybe one day you could send me some nudes

I could agitate myself to the memory of rolling with you

Still I wonder what good that'd do

These days I do my cheating with this beautiful landlady JewI needed some romancing so I went and had my ten dollar crew

Now I'm dancing with my baby and she's looking at the ten dollar view And I ain't missed a pussy like I missed the one that came out of you

It's you

Ooh ooh
