

All on Me (feat. Andreas Moe)

Armin van Buuren & Brennan Heart

Armin van Buuren & Brennan Heart All on Me You
Don't you dare let go
I'm right here you know
I mean it Don't
Even think the thought
If it's real or not
I've seen it When your heart's been open
To someone who's broken it
Let me take some weight off of you When you're tired of living
Like you're not forgiven
Let me share that burden with you
You think you're losing everything
And you're down too deep
Put it all on me
I'll do anything to set you free
All that pain you feel
Put it all on me All on me
All on me
All on me
All on me Feels
Wear them on your sleeve
So they all can see
You did it Dreams
Yeah, they made you bleed
But you never stopped
Believing
When your heart's been open
To someone who's broken it
Let me take some weight off of you When you're tired of living
Like you're not forgiven
Let me share that burden with you You think you're losing everything
And you're down too deep
Put it all on me
I'll do anything to set you free
All that pain you feel
Put it all on me All on me
All on me
All on me
All on me All on me
All on me
All on me

All on me
