

Running for the Train

Lurine Cato

Danger to the left, danger to my right but I'm going straight ahead, your not gonna take me out no no!

You've had all your fun, I am telling you its done the jokes now on you, I'm gonna keep my cool oh
But I'mRunning for the train, running for the train, running for the train
And I'm not gonna miss it..I've booked my seat and speak to everyone I meet Take me to the golden gates its my destiny yeaaah!

I don't need to look back, huuuhhhhh!

Cause I'm on the right track, I pray my family and friends are on the same train as me but I'm!

Running for the train, running for the train, running for the train

And I'm not gonna miss it..

Oh I can't stop it cause my feet keeps running, oh I can't stop it cause my feet keeps running
Over to the train cause I can't wait to get up there

Oh I can't stop it cause my feet keeps running, oh I can't stop it cause my feet keeps running
Over to the train cause I can't wait to get up there

But I'mRunning for the train, running for the train, running for the train
And I'm not gonna miss it..
