

Flowers On the Grave

September

Oh, oh, oh, oh yeah
Oh, oh, oh, oh yeah
MmmmmRemember what I told you,
Your face will let you hide the pain,
You let me get to know you,
And not it's driving me insaneOh baby we were never soldiers,
You and me could never fight for things we don't believeAnd we will never never ever be the same,
Since we buried love we swore,
Would never end,
So now I'm laying down,
the flowers on the grave,
And we will never never ever be the same
Just hold me till tomorrow,
You don't have to say a thing,
Cause I know about the sorrow,
That the morning light will bring,
Baby we were getting colder,
'Cause feelings don't deceiveAnd we will never never ever be the same,
Since we buried love we swore,
Would never end,
So now I'm laying down,
the flowers on the grave,
And we will never never ever be the sameOh, oh, ohBaby, we were never soldiers,
You and me couldn't never fight,
For things we don't believeOooh
Baby, we were getting colder,
You and me could never lie,
'Cause feelings don't deceive, yeeeahSince we buried love we swore,
Would never end (would never end),
So now I'm laying down,
The flowers on the grave (I'm laying down the flowers),
And we will never, never, ever be the sameAnd we will never, never, ever be the same
