

Look Back (feat. Eyelar)

Denzal Park

I know your heart is filled with a million wishes, a million things to dream
Can I read just one?
I know that you will be in a million star, reaching forever, look back on
Can I read one? But the colors that we carry seem to slowly fade away
And I've wondered how we'll make it here for just another day
So tell me, do you still hear me whisper wherever you lay your head?
Do you live for tomorrow or till we both look back? Till we both look back I know the history, we can't hold on to, 'cause it's already gone
Said I can't let go But the colors that we carry seem to slowly fade away
And I've wondered how we'll make it here for just another day
So tell me, do you still hear me whisper wherever you lay your head?
Do you live for tomorrow or till we both look back?
Till we both look back
