

Look What U Started

The Internet

Why?

Know you got it coming, babe
You took this shit from zero to a hundred, babe
I hope you finally get it on your judgement day
'Cause you're gonna pay, babe, you're gonna pay, babe Givin' you another me
But lead you when you said you were in love with me
I heard that you've been tryna get in touch with me
What you got to say, babe? You got to say, babe? Now you should ask yourself
Was-was it worth it?
Before you go and ask for help
Do you deserve it?
Girl, you know what you did
Look what you started
What's going through your head?
Are you sorry?
There's nothing left to say (say, say, say)
There's nothing left to say (say, say, say) Don't know what you're going through
You blame it on your problems but it's no excuse
You can't keep playing innocent, I know the truth
I know that you're crazy, I know all your crazy Falling out of love with you
Wasn't easy but I finally gotten over you
More power to the one that gets a hold of you
'Cause I ain't gonna take it, ain't gonna take it Now you should ask yourself
Was-was it worth it?
Before you go and ask for help
Do you deserve it?
Girl, you know what you did
Look what you started
What's going through your head?
Are you sorry?
There's nothing left to say (say, say, say)
There's nothing left to say (say, say, say) Girl, you know what you did
Look what you started
What's going through your head?
Are you sorry?
There's nothing left to say (say, say, say) Look
That's just the way that I felt (just the way I felt)
Tough through, this time, it's for real
So say goodbye
To you and I
Meanwhile, I'll try to forget (I'll try, baby)

The way you treated me then, no
It wasn't right but you'll pay the price
Bitch
Oh babe, why?
