

Fred Astaire

Lucky Boys Confusion

You can call it anything you want, but the fact remains the same;
I never got to be your Fred Astaire.
You can lie to yourself and all your friends; pretend that you don't care
But circumstance gets in the way You have so many opportunities I never had Don't push so hard, nothing is ever easy
And this talent that you take for granted, it's a gift from god
Don't pass it up, nothing is ever easy Are you ready to work real hard
Are you tired it's just the start
Listen to me son, I'll take you far You can call it anything you want the fact remains the same
I never got to be your Fred Astaire
You can lie to yourself and all your friends
and pretend that you don't care
But circumstance gets in the way
Heel, toe, heel, toe, side to side AGAIN, gonna get it right
Don't push so hard, nothing is ever easy
Don't forget your please and thank you's, don't forget to smile
Don't pass this up, nothing is ever easy Are you ready to work real hard
Are you tired it's just the start
Listen to me son, I'll take you far, take you far You can call it anything you want the fact remains the same
I never got to be your Fred Astaire
You can lie to yourself and all your friends
and pretend that you don't care
But circumstance gets in the way They're pushing these children for all the wrong reasons
So far man you're crushing down their spirits
Your pushing these children for all the wrong reasons
So far man you're crushing down their spirits
Suffocate, emancipate, turn their backs and walk away eventually, eventually Suffocate, emancipate, turn their backs and walk away eventually, eventually Seeking, seeking, one of these, one of these Seeking, seeking, one of these, one of these paths You're wasting time --- I call it living
To the world what are you giving
You're wasting time --- I call it living
To the world what are you giving
You're wasting time --- I call it living
To the world what are you giving
You're wasting time? You can call it anything you want the fact remains the same
I never got to be your Fred Astaire
You can lie to yourself and all your friends
and pretend that you don't care
But circumstance gets in the way
