

Crazy to Love You

Decco & Alex Clare

Lately I've been living on gin and adrenaline
Tryna play a game I can never win
In a part of town where they never smile, never grin
Oh, what a situation a fella's in
Staying on the move like Bedouin
Can't find a place for me to settle in
Don't know which direction I'm heading in
They're spreading rumours, but rumours ain't true
That I'd be better off without you
But my heart beats when you call me
All my friends they tell me I'm
Letting these good times pass me by
They say I'm crazy to love you
Crazy to love you
Feeling like time is all slow-mo
But if I run, where do I go?
I know I'm crazy to love you
Crazy to love you
Wondering where various lovers went
Pondering the days when I was innocent
Can't trust the news or the government
Sensationalist chasing the new event
If I had you to represent, lady
Maybe then I would repent daily
I feel like you're the one they'd send, baby
I know I can't wait until the city saves me
They're spreading rumours, but rumours ain't true
That I'd be better off without you
But my heart beats when you call me
All my friends they tell me I'm
Letting these good times pass me by
They say I'm crazy to love you
Crazy to love you
Feeling like time is all slow-mo
But if I run, where do I go?
I know I'm crazy to love you
Crazy to love you
I come alive when the sun goes down
I'll be alright if you stay around
You're the only truth that I've found
So don't you lie, don't you lie
I come alive when the sun goes down
I'll be alright if you stay around
You're the only truth that I've found
So don't you lie
All my friends they tell me I'm
Letting these good times pass me by
They say I'm crazy to love you
Crazy to love you
Feeling like time is all slow-mo
But if I run, where do I go?
I know I'm crazy to love you

Crazy to love you
