

He Calls Home

Candlebox

I see him everyday
In that blanket that he calls home
I wonder does he know
That his family they're left alone
He says brother can you spare
Can you spare a dime
I'm down to my last dollar
And this life of mine
Said this life of mine
It gets rough at times
And I wonder does he know
Does he even care
That his family's safe at home and they wonder where
As he wanders through his life ever searchin' for
A warm blanket on warm fields and he wanders on
And I wonder is he safe from the cold
Safe out from the cold
Well I see he left the other day
Took his blanket that he called home
I wonder did he go for good
Or did he pass away
Well I wonder does he know
See I'm down to my last dollar
And this life of mine
Said this life of mine
It gets rough at times
Now I wonder does he know
Does he even care
That my family's safe at home
And I wonder where
As I wander through my life
Ever searchin' for
My warm blanket on fields and I wander on
And I wonder
Will I always be helped along
I said I
I'll never know
Because I
I'll never go and yes, I
I said I wonder why
Because I
I'll never go home

I'll never come home
I'll never come home
Oh won't you let me come home
Cause I won't come home
But I'll never know
I'll never go
I said I wonder why
Because I know I will never come home
I'll never come home
Never come home
Come home
Won't you let me come home
Cause I want to come home
Let me come home
Oh won't let me come home
