

Abominationz (feat. Insane Clown Posse)

Twiztid

Hey Man!
I'm an abomination
Crazy!
Not my creation
Blame me for the fall of a generation
An out of mind Seven awakened They go "there go that freakshow"
He the opposite of anything ordinary or peaceful
The FBI been watchin me like peep shows
Afraid of what I might do with all these people
Well I'm the prequel and sequel to the evilest thing you ever seen
So really I'm like "Fuck You" to everyone in between Mainstream is afraid of my A-Team
Cause I'll put one in your face man, call it a cut scene!
Hey, ya love, I'm good, a single regime
And I'll cut your arm and leg off, Maybelline.
All because an abomination is free
When all you had to do was just let the freak bleed.
You don't really wanna go there with me
I'm silly with nowhere to be
I been all out killin people for nothin, notoriously
Just gimmie that axe and you'll see,
Split you in half the speed
So you'll beg me to kill you,
"A little faster please?" Hey Man!
I'm an abomination
Crazy!
Not my creation
Blame me for the fall of a generation
An out of mind Seven awakened
(Abomination!) Grab the kids pull em closer
Here comes the bad guys start shakin'
What the fuck we out here doin' now?
Some kind of snakin'
Treated like a pack of strays, not allowed in
Maybe it's time we gather at the gates and plow in
You discredit our accomplishments, astonishments
Dark Carnival so deep it's bottomless
We ain't welcome at the banquet cause nobody vouch for us yet
Here we are growling so loud they can't ignore us
What if we became everything they claim we is?
We took the show out the game, and brought the real biz
I've been called a monster so many times I'm turning green I'll come get em make wherever they at a murder scene They wanna damn it off the planet

They don't understand it
But then the legend grows some of them's time harder than granite
Them guys chant it for the righteous, treated wrong
It was just a song, but we could only take it so long Hey Man!
I'm an abomination
Crazy!
Not my creation
Blame me for the fall of a generation
An out of mind Seven awakened
Shunned all my life like I'm plagued, a disease
Rather live on my feet than die on my knees
Cause I'm always trashed out so it's hard to see
The little good left in life and what you made me
What's wrong with crazy? Got a new way to do it
More confident, and don't call it positive
Cause the nigga alive inside of me will only abolish it
Completely insane my minds able to gain
The right side of my brain does not work in tandem
The left knows what's best but it takes no pain
Cause I'm a dick to every stranger and hoe to keep it random
Tell em I won't change I'm still fucked up
And I still don't understand the middle
Cause they preach us peace
Then call us the enemies
And can't wait to capture and kill us off
(HEY!)
Who's been in the rap game?
Nowadays it's so hard to tell so fuck everyone
Now I'm a read em to the hoe,
Do we sound like the moon in the meantime
So we can rise like the sun
It's as if I diss just to hate them
Tried a lesser man, give a shit
It only brings, like Bruce Banner, the rage in me awakens
Don't stop smashin' like they Forsaken
So mad that my hands keep shakin'
Who da fuck are they to talk shit about us?
We just come at the Earth with this horrible trash
According to the words of the upper crust
And they wonder why the fans we trust
Accept who we are and let us be us
We can represent the motha fuckas that reach to us
And the rest of the world can just shut the fuck up! Hey Man!
I'm an abomination
Crazy!
Not my creation
Blame me for the fall of a generation

An out of mind Satan awakened
