

Cop Stop

Gavin DeGraw

When your feathers are soaked and your eyes are too bloody to see
And you pulled every punch that you had but there's one that you need
Then you've waited too long, there's a hole in your heart
And all you've become is emotionally overrun
Wishing wells were made to echo a dime
(I'm a cop stop, baby I'm a cop stop)
The consequences are you keep on relying
(I'm a cop stop, baby I'm a cop stop)
You become a run and hide refugee
Baby I'm a cop stop, put up your hand and surrender to me You're gonna get hooked if there's anything left I can do
You already disarmed it's your lasting alarm I pursue
You can loosen those fists, c'mon blow me a kiss
You've been roughed up enough to deserve some relief
From your trouble, so I'm coming in
Wishing wells were made to echo a dime
(I'm a cop stop, baby I'm a cop stop)
The consequences are you keep on relying
(I'm a cop stop, baby I'm a cop stop)
You become a run and hide refugee
Baby I'm a cop stop, put up your hands and surrender to me
Otherwise I would never tell you what to do despite
Any indecision though I know I'm right
Arguing was always my forte
Well, one thing I can say is I won't tell you lies
Or treat you like a rental car like other guys
And if you think I'm crazy find an alibi
'Cause you will need some evidence to show
Oh, wishing wells were made to echo a dime
(I'm a cop stop, baby I'm a cop stop)
The consequences are you keep on relying
(I'm a cop stop, baby I'm a cop stop)
You become a run and hide refugee
Baby I'm a cop stop, put up your hands and surrender to me
(I'm a cop stop, baby I'm a cop stop)
Baby I'm a cop stop, put up your hands and surrender to me
(I'm a cop stop, baby I'm a cop stop)
Baby I'm a cop stop, put up your hands and surrender to me
