

Murder Mitten

I See Stars

You won't see me die here
You always say I need to get
As far away as I can While I've got time to play with
And any risk, I'll take it
Or fade away in this suburban wasteland
And watch all your plans
Sink right under your feet
Sink right under your feet
Watch all your plans
Sink right under your feet
Under your feet is the ground to break
You only get what you take
So don't just sit and watch the atrophy of it
I have stood back for way too long
You are broken, you are so broken
I can see that we may be running out of time
The curtain's falling in slow motion
I can feel that the sense has left your mind
The curtain's falling in slow motion
Why did you go, I can't watch
So quiet and peaceful
Where did I go wrong
Say you can stay, I can't look away
You won't see me die here
You won't see me die here
Now! Now! Do you hear me now!
Screaming at the top of my lungs all night
Now! Now! Do you hear me now!
Screaming at the top of my lungs all night
Why? Why? Ask me why?
Go ahead and act like you don't know why!
Why? Why? Ask me why?
I'll scream it, you blow me away
You blow me away, you blow me away
Can you give me my breathe back?
Can you give me my breathe back?
Can you give me my breathe back?
Can you give me my breathe back?
Do you hear me now!
Screaming at the top of my lungs all night
Do you hear me now!
Screaming at the top of my lungs all night
Do you hear me now!
