

Now let's get it, get it, get it And now This is for silver-lining finding, Shit is fine, B. Keep this in mind, and moments that's defining, keep your calm amidst the sirens
I know that there are tyrants that are tireless,
But some don't even need mind it, it's just a minus
There are pluses in abundance, life is wondrous, find your comfort in your moral compass.
Do not be left in the dust with all the dunces worried that the world is crumbling.
It's always crumbling.
That's its primary basic function.
It cannot be any better, it cannot be any worse,
It can only be the way it is, that's the way it works.
That goes for everybody on the Earth
You think you worth it cuz you from the dirt
There are people from the dirt that aren't earth
It's ... to find the perks instead of steady wallin' whining about your wallet and your purse Life's a blessing. Everyone alive is more than blessed enough Unless you're jealous of someone else's stuff which of course makes you a sucker Hook:
Now let's get it all in perspective
Now let's get it all in perspective
Now let's get it all in perspective
Now let's get it all in perspective
Now let's get it all in perspective
Now let's get it all in perspective
Now let's get it all in perspective
now let's get it, get it, get it
