

Time We Left This World Today (Alternate Version)

Hawkwind

Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
Cast sly glances at who you meet
Cast sly glances at who you meet
Cast sly glances at who you meet Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
Cast sly glances at who you meet
Cast sly glances at who you meet Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today

Time we left this world today

Time we left

Time we left

Time we left
