

Destroy Beautiful Things (Silver Strain Remix)

The Planets Won't Let You Sleep Tonight

When, When love ends
I am lost but composed I find, Find something else
Hand held by fear Dealt death without cause Draw, Draw on a mask
No one knows us
No one sees
Behind painted veils And proud battle scars
I hide that i'm lonely
Pour my cup full and drown me in apathy
When you see me
I start to run
You look away - I reappear
I don't understand
Games that we play
What makes us this way?
Maybe it's wisdom
Maybe it's fear I- I'm my only friend
My emotions
Always get the best of me. I destroy-Destroy
beautiful things So paint me,
To watch it dissolve.
In my head
Destructive thoughts
Imagine the end
Black tulips are grown to be bled When you see me
I start to turn
I've been lonely for so long
That I'm used to this Numbed by the loss
This room is empty
But I call it home
