

Don't Leave Me Lonely (feat. James Francies)

Mark Ronson & Yebba

Tell me baby what's on your heart?
'Cause I've been wondering around in your dark, yeah
I've got way too many questions Always learning lessons
Loving too hard Give me just a second to breathe
'Cause you've been turning all the tables on me, yeah
Whenever you would get up in your feelings
I would always listen
Now you turn around and leave Oh, if we fall apart, let's do it in the dark
Hit me in the heart this time
Don't you leave me lonely tonight
'Cause I won't forgive you
Don't you leave me lonely tonight
'Cause I can't forget you
I toss and turn alone in my bed
When you should be laying here beside me instead
Oh, don't you leave me lonely tonight
'Cause I won't forgive you, forgive you, forgive you this time Tell me if this love is a lie
'Cause the ticking time is passing me by I'm waiting but the second hand is turning
Burning all the circles in my mind, eh
Anticipating 'cause you know I'm never satisfied
And I don't want to here the reasons why, why, why we fight, eh Oh, if we fall apart, let's do it in the dark
Hit me in the heart this time
Don't you leave me lonely tonight
'Cause I won't forgive you
Don't you leave me lonely tonight
'Cause I can't forget you
I toss and turn alone in my bed
When you should be laying here beside me instead
Oh, don't you leave me lonely tonight
'Cause I won't forgive you, forgive you, forgive you this time Don't you leave me lonely tonight
'Cause I won't forgive you
Oh, don't you leave me lonely tonight
'Cause I won't forget you
Oh, I toss and turn alone in my bed
When you should be laying here beside me instead
Oh, don't you leave me lonely
'Cause I won't forgive you, forgive you, forgive you this time
