

Here, Right Now

Joshua Radin

I've seen much more than most
Much less than some
Took a while to give up the ghost
Thought it'd never come
There were times, blood on my hands and I
Tried to wash away
Outside the lines I couldn't stand
Without a soft voice to say
That I'm here (I'm here)
Right now (right now)
Not lost (not lost) but found
And everything I've done
Has brought me to you
I got a scar, I don't try to hide it
It's forever mine
Got a heart, so long to find it
Can't remember why
You'll never know what you can be
Till ya come to realize
In the rearview all that has hurt you
It's just a passerby 'Cause you're here (I'm here)
Not lost (not lost) but found
And everything I've done
Has brought me to you
Now I hold my head high
You can see it in my eyes
I won't turn away
If the darkness comes, I'll stay
I'll stay
'Cause I'm here (I'm here)
Not lost (not lost) but found
And everything I've done
Has brought me to you
I'm here (I'm here)
Not lost (not lost) but I'm found
And everything I've done
Has brought me to you
Everything I've done
Has brought me to you
