

Easier Said Than Done

Angie Stone

Ally oop now, ally oop, ally oop now
Ally oop now, ally oop, ally oop now
Ally oop now, ally oop, ally oop now If I hear I'm sorry one more time from you
I swear I'm gonna loose it, you don't want me to loose it
How hard could this be for you to tell the truth
I've heard it all before and I won't take it anymore I'm tired of hearing, I'm gonna change
And seeing you play these games
I see with you, it's easier said than done I'm tired of giving you one more chance
And now I'm saying, "You've had your last"
I see with you, it's easier said than done
It has been a year or so since you started this Hanging out 'till the early morning with your boys
Drinking like a fish, boy I love you and all but I gotta think
About me and the kids, baby, this ain't no way to live I'm tired of hearing, I'm gonna change
And seeing you play these games
I see with you, it's easier said than done I'm tired of giving you one more chance
And now I'm saying, "You've had your last"
I see with you, it's easier said than done I'm tired of hearing but seeing you playing games
I see with you, it's easier said than done
I'm tired of giving you one more chance
And I'm saying, you've had your last
I see with you it's easier said than done
When you've done all that you can do
Don't let a man's trouble, the best of you
Believe half of what you see and half of what you hear
'Cuz when you put 'em together you come up with Nothing or whatever I'm tired, so long a game
I see with you, it's easier said than done I'm tired of giving you one more chance
And now I'm saying, you, I see with you, it's easier
But I'm seeing, but I see with you, it's easier said than done I'm tired of giving you
Giving you one more chance
I see with you, it's easier said than done, oh
